

INFORMATION ABOUT PLAY.IT

WISIA SYMPOSIUM 16. - 17.03.2012

The pilot experience of the The Learning Game project during which different schools tested the potential of Videogames and Multimedia for Educational purposes showed how important it is that teachers establish a common language with their pupils in order to raise their interest for learning. The Play The Learning Game Project intends to further exploit and transfer the results of the former project in order to answer to the following needs:

- better comprehension and knowledge of the most innovative softwares and technical solutions available onto the market to be used for developing educational contents
- identify and evaluate the Videogames available onto the market with an educational and training potential
- having access to e-learning courses to be used to implement innovative technical solutions for education and training
- Need of teachers and trainers to acquire the skills to make full use of advanced interactive and multimedia solutions for educational purposes

Name	Institution	Signature
Dr. Karen Kastenhof	Universität Hamburg	Karen Kastenhof
DI Babette HEBENSTREIT	Bioenergy 2020+	Babette Hebenstreit
DR. ANDREA NUSSBAUMER	UNIVERSITÄT WIEN	Andrea Nussbaumer
Mag. MARION LUGER	perslichtswert e.U.	Marion Luger
Dr. Isabella Ellinger	Med. Uni. Graz	I. Ellinger
Dr. Sabine Ertl	Vetmed Uni Vienna	S. Ertl
Dr. Emiko Kallay	Med Uni. Wien	Emiko Kallay
Dr. Redika Medar	TU WIEN	Redika Medar
Dr. Susanne GROBER	Forschungsverein Warenlehre	Susanne Grober
Dr. Vitore Thala-Mayhofer	BOKU, Wien	Vitore Thala-Mayhofer
Mag. Katharina Zmelik	Universität Wien	Katharina Zmelik
Dr. Anna Isabella Streissler	Universität Wien	A. Streissler
Barbara Jühla	Caritas St. Pölten	Barbara Jühla
Shokufeh ZAMINI	AIT, Austrian Institute of Technology	Shokufeh Zamini

